MOBILE APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT REPORT

The two days workshop on Mobile Application Development was inaugurated by our respected Principal Dr. V. Selladurai on 6th and 7th January 2012. Prof. Dr. V. Ramachandran from Anna University, Chennai is a known active researcher. On the first day of the workshop, an introduction to the Android Fundamentals, GUI Programming and Network Programming for Android Applications was covered. In the second day session brief introduction to Bluetooth Programming and applications on Android using channels were covered. Afternoon session was fully dedicated to the Launching of Web services in Android devices. A total of 150 students, faculty members and research scholars attended the workshop.